IV. Read the Muzrai Secretary's letter No. 721 dated 4th Jan 1900, enquiring if Rs. 50 or any portion thereof can be paid from the Education-Grant of Rs 9000, for Scholarships to the students studying at the Melkote Sanskrit College for the Vidvat examinations of the Mysore Sanskrit College.

Resolution:

In the proceedings dated 1st April 1899, the Committee had recommended increases of Salary to deserving teachers of the College and corresponding provision therefor in the Budget. There is further an urgent necessity of providing for Scholarships to newly admitted students, and to old students who were forced to leave the city at the outbreak of Plague and have just returned or are about to return to their studies. The Committee also believe that it is necessary to appoint some additional teachers to teach Tarka and the higher Sahitya subjects, and to create new fellowships in Sahitya and other subjects, so that qualified Pandits may be at hand to teach advanced studies Having the fulfilment of these objects in view, the Committee regret that it is not feasible at present to allot any portion of the College funds for the purpose under consideration.

V. Resolved that, as per statement C annexed, remuneration amounting to Rs 498/- be awarded to the Pandits and others who assisted in the conduct of the late annual Examinations of the College.

VI Resolved that, as per statement D annexed, prizes amounting to Rs 253/- be awarded to the Successful students at the Vidyarthi examination of 1899

VII Read the Muzrai Secretary's memo No. 515 dated 6th Dec 1899 forwarding for disposal the petition of Venkatesa Sastri and oth. students praying that a Śrauta-prayoga class be opened in the College.

Resolved that consideration of the Subject be postponed for the present, as the signatories to the petition are neither students of the College, nor have they presented themselves before the College Committee for necessary enquiry.
